MUTINY; NOW AN UPRISING.

Stopping of Telegrams from Spain Suggests Trouble at Barcelona and Cadiz.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) PARIS, Aug. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Telegrams from Spain have been stopped for the last twelve hours. It is believed that there has been an uprising in Barcelona and Cadiz, following the mutiny on board the Spanish warship Numancia and the execution of the mutineers. Agitation against the ministry and the monarchy increases. The censorship over the press and telegraphic communication is more severe than was in force under the Conservative ministry.

Driven from the center of the city, the crowd went to the Salting quarter, one of the lowest in the city. Here the police were baffled in the narrow streets for the desperate rioters barricaded themselves in the houses and outlying bricks, stones and chimney pots from the roofs upon their heads.

HOURS FIRED.

While the details as to casualties are not complete, Constable Cockran is known to have been killed by a blow on the head and Superintendent of Police Bolton was taken to a hospital in a serious condition. It is rumored that some houses were set on fire.

The outbreak, it is alleged, was largely due to the strikers' resentment of the indecent conduct on the part of the police brought here from Birmingham to assist in maintaining order.

Tom Mann, who was one of the leaders in the demonstration, has lodged a formal protest with the chief constable against what he describes

FAST FLYER IS DITCHED.

Four Dead; Thirty Badly Hurt.

Prominent Angelino, Wife and Four Children Suffer Slight Injuries.

Pennsylvania Special Jumps the Track at Fifty-Mile Gait.

Panic Follows and Men Tear Woman from Window in Effort to Escape.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) FORT WAYNE (Ind.) Aug. 13.—Four persons were killed and thirty injured when the Pennsylvania "eighteen-hour train," en route from Chicago to New York, jumped the track on the western outskirts of the city at 4:30 o'clock this evening while going at fifty miles an hour.

In leaving the rails the engines pulling the passenger train side swiped a freight engine and the three piled up in a mass of twisted iron.

The baggage, smoker, buffet cars and two sleepers turned over in the ditch.

Together with the equipment which will make Battery A, Field Artillery, National Guard of California, one of the best in the country as well as one of the first to be fitted out in the West. Above are the officers of the battery. Reading from right to left they are Capt. R. A. Ford, Second Lieutenant S. C. Haver, Jr., First Lieutenant Jesse McComas and Sergt. D. H. Smith. The latter is on a two-years' detail from Battery F, his principal duties being the instruction of the members of the battery in the care and handling of the ordnance.

THE DEAD.

UNIDENTIFIED PASSENGER, at St. Joseph Hospital.

The police department, the fire department and every ambulance in the city were called to the scene and the injured were soon taken to hospitals. The main track and the track on which the freight train was located were torn up for 300 yards. The two engines on the flyer were torn from their tracks and thrown down the embankment while the engine of the freight reared up over the trucks of the flyer's engines.

CROWD DRAWN BY GREAT GUNS.

Men Take to the War Machines Like Youngsters to New Toys. With Orders Issued for First Drill Tomorrow Night Officers Realize There May Be Changes.

With the order issued for the first drill tomorrow night, the transferring of Battery A's new equipment from the five cars at Exposition Park to the Exposition building basement continued at top speed yesterday. The officers realized that the unloading might mean a change in plans. As pleased as school children many members of the battery, physicians, lawyers, and business men among them, watched the work closely. The operations also drew a good many outsiders, who readily agreed with the battery boys that their $105,000 array of guns and carriages, caissons, and other fixtures are right up to the minute.

Some of the equipment was uncovered in the basement. Only members had access to the storage place. Many of them fingered the pieces as eagerly as youngsters would new toys. The unloading will continue today and tomorrow. The officers are confident that the last piece will have been set up by tomorrow afternoon, and the military appetites of the battery boys, have been whetted to the keenest kind of an edge.

It has been found no easy task to detain the equipment. The guns particularly require the combined strength of several men to budge them. Anxious as the officers are to push the work, the cumbersome loads can be moved but slowly at best. The headway made has been satisfactory, however. Indications are there are going to be no disappointments. The naturally is danger in the handling of the paraphernalia, but up to last night, not the slightest mishap was reported.

Weighing approximately 60,000 pounds, the outfit takes up considerable space.

So far the battery members have received but one uniform. They are to have four each. It is expected that the remaining three will be received in good time for early maneuvers.

Sergt. H. D. Smith, First Field Artillery, U.S.A., detailed here for two years to aid in establishing the foundation of the battery work, is helping with the detrainment.

Smith shares the opinion of Capt. R. A. Ford, and his staff, that Battery A, N.G.C., is going to make a showing that will attract attention throughout the country, once details are mastered. Smith has pronounced the class of men the battery is composed

BRYAN NOT FOR PULPIT.

Denies Story That He Contemplates Entering the Ministry—Becomes Somewhat Peeved at Report.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) SALEM (Ill.) Aug. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] William J. Bryan, who visited Salem, his birthplace, today, was shown dispatches reporting that he intended entering the ministry.

"It provokes me very much to have such a story circulated," said Mr. Bryan. "I do not know whether to attribute it to overzeal on the part of my friends or to the malice of enemies."

"I have never said or done anything to furnish a foundation for such a story, and I hope it will not be necessary for me to deny it again."

"I expect to make the study and discussion of public questions my chief business while I live. Other things are incidental."

At the Methodist Church tonight he delivered an address on "The Old Religion" in the presence of a large audience.

TODAY TO DECIDE FATE OF CALIFORNIA LEMONS.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) WASHINGTON (D. C.) Aug. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Tomorrow the Senate will take up the question of disagreeing with the House amendment putting lemons on the free list, and, unless something unexpected happens, the bill will be agreed to (without free lemons) and sent to the President without further conference. All of the Californians will be on hand this time to see that nothing escapes them. The understanding is thought to be

REAL MEN, FORWARD.

Rich Women Want Live Ones.

Kate Sanborn, Authoress and Professor, Is Authority for Statement.

Girls Are Mighty Tired of Namby Pamby Weaklings She Says.

That's Why, She Divulges, Mrs. Vanderbilt's Niece Wed a "Shoffer."

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) METCALF (Mass.) Aug. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Miss Kate Sanborn, famous authoress, one time professor in Smith College, whose literary name is Katherine Abbott Sanborn, believes that the daughters of the rich tired of being hampered, tired of living the empty life of society with men who are often weaklings and seldom much more than mere puppets, are deliberately giving up many of their advantages and are turning to men whose physical make-up is more nearly the elementary.

The elopement of Julia Estelle French, niece of Mrs. Vanderbilt, with a chauffeur, Jack Geraghty, inspired the statement. Miss Sanborn said:

MEN OF STRAW.

"And whom should one expect a woman to marry, a man of straw? Why should a woman tie herself up with a man whom she cannot love? The world cries 'panda!' when a girl marries a man of her own set, whom it is evident, she does not love, and yet when the girl takes her fate into her own hands and marries for happiness, irrespective of wealth or social position, the world likewise cries 'panda!' when in the consequence of this? It is human nature that each sex admires what is the most characteristic trait in the other, hence a woman always wants a manly man and vice versa."

REAL MEN.

"I can easily see how a good, healthy mind, with a natural desire for the partnership of one should prefer a real man to one of the namby pamby creatures with whom she comes into daily contact."

"Only one who understands the nature of woman can exactly comprehend why it is that a woman will forget everything else and follow the man she loves to the end—whatever the end may be."

WEDDING MARATHON MAY BE NEXT THING.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) SPRINGFIELD (Mass.) Aug. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A matrimonial marathon may be the next sensation in the wedding of Helene Julia French to Chauffeur "Jack" Geraghty. For three days may see the young couple wildly frolic from State to State, getting married wherever law recognizes the right of a girl of 18 to marry the man of her choice. For, according to legal authorities, the law of Connecticut declares that a girl cannot wed until she is 21 unless her parents or guardians give written permission. The youthful bride when she was married to "Jack" Geraghty in Central Village, Ct., after a romantic elopement from Newport in an automobile, gave her age as 21, telling what she now characterizes as a "tiny little story." But the "story" was necessary in order to get the license, and the "story" was justified, from her own standpoint, at least.

DETERMINED TO STICK.

But on this point the French and Vanderbilt families have been hoping to annul the marriage. The determination of the young couple to seek another State in case annulment proceedings are started will effectually break the barrier which the parents of the bride hope to erect. New Jersey, Massachusetts, Maine and several other eastern States allow a girl to marry at 18 without the consent of her parents, and to these States the bridal couple will look for aid in the romance.

"Just the minute they start annulment proceedings in Connecticut we will simply go to some other State and get married all over again," said the bride today. "They ought to realize that after we traveled more than 100 miles in an automobile in the dead of night to be married, that we really meant the affair to be lasting."

OTHER PLACES, PLENTY.

"There are other States—yes, a lot of other States—where they will marry a girl of 18 to the man she wants. And if we do spend nearly all our money, we are going to keep enough for a trip to another State, a wedding-license fee and sufficient to pay the minister."

Mrs. "Handsome Jack" French said that if her mother and father could look into the little Harris cottage in this city, where the bride and groom are living with the husband's aunt and uncle, and see how happy their daughter is with her British bulldog on her lap and stalwart young Irish-American husband at her side, they would forget and forgive everything.

HAYTI TO HOLD ELECTION TODAY

Order Rapidly Restored Both in Town and Country.

British and German Boats Go Away from Capital.

Looters Shot Down in Public Square as Warning.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
PORT-AU-PRINCE (Hayti) Aug. 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Order is rapidly being restored over Hayti. Affairs have cooled down to the safety point, where the commanders of the German cruiser Bremen and the British cruiser Melbourne considered their presence no longer necessary and today sailed away. Their departure will tend to increase tranquility, as the presence of these foreign forces, more especially the Germans, was irritating to the people. The Germans seemed to seek opportunities to aggravate the situation and might have gone much farther in this respect except for the presence of the British and American boats.

As further assuring the populace that order is to be restored, five persons caught looting were yesterday shot in the public square. Strict orders have been issued to execute any rioters, more especially those who are guilty of crimes against women, or any act tending to excite the enmity of foreigners.

Gen. Firmin has returned to this port, but only to remain here a few hours, his mission taking him at once to Puerto Rico.

The election for President will be held tomorrow and extraordinary precautions are being taken to preserve order throughout the island. It is thought the departure of the British and German war vessels will do much to allay the temper of the people. The presence during an election would have been considered in the light of a club over the heads of the electorate.

Unusual deference is being shown Americans, who have conducted themselves admirably during the revolution. The attitude of American officials on land and on the cruises, has been firm, without any show of interference with local affairs, but with the plain understanding that prompt reprisals would follow any overt acts against American life or property.

ALFARO GOVERNMENT OUSTED IN ECUADOR.

(BY A. P. WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—The Alfaro government in Ecuador was overthrown Friday by a revolution organized by supporters of President Estrada. A few casualties occurred and a provisional government, headed by the President of the State, was formed, according to State Department's advice today from Minister Young at Quito. Mr. Young's cable yesterday, reported the city fairly quiet. The arrival of President Estrada was momentarily expected. Gen. Alfaro and his family took refuge in the Chilean legation.

DEMOCRATS FEAR FEUD.

Wisconsin Politics in an Unsettled State Over Selection of Committee-men to Run Fairness.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
MILWAUKEE (Wis.) Aug. 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] J. E. Davies, chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, cannot return from Europe any too quick for Wisconsin Democrats.

There is the "machine" of a pretty fight over the national committee rendered vacant by the death of T. E. Ryan. While the position is merely one of honor, so far as State politics go, the national committee, such as from a Democratic standpoint, as to possibly make a national committeeman, even from Wisconsin, a person of some influence. Candidates who have been brought into the limelight by their friends are numerous. In case Grady and Davies come into the field, the old Grady-Atwood fight will unquestionably come to the surface again, and less nothing of its bitterness in the revamping. For that reason there is a feeling among a great many Democrats that it would be better to take up some new man. Conditions are such as to imperil the chances, otherwise good, of Democratic success next year.

FIVE MEN INJURED.

Two Victims of Auto Accident Near Santa Cruz May Die—Machine Struck Into Creek.

(BY A. P. WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
SANTA CRUZ, Aug. 12.—Two young men were probably fatally injured and three others were hurt when their automobile early today plunged sixty feet down a bank into Soguel Creek. The accident occurred near Capitola. Robert Shinn, who was driving, cannot account for it. Harry Dean, whose shoulder was broken, and Elmer Nosh, whose back was strained, may die. Both are believed to have been internally injured. William Place's arm was broken. Shinn, who struck to the wheel, escaped with bruises, as did George Frye, the remaining member of the party.

EXECUTIONER COMES DOWN.

Hungarian, Who Has Always Got $100, Will Sell Goldfield Murderer to Doom for $20.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
RENO, Aug. 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Warden Ray Baker has secured cut rates for the execution of Patrick Casey, the Goldfield murderer, who is to be hanged at the Carson Prison, Wednesday. Chris Yeager, who has sent nineteen men into eternity, is the official hangman. He has always received this sum and believed he was entitled to it. Baker offered him $50, but Yeager refused. Baker then said that he would undertake the task himself.

Yeager held out for his price for several days, but today agreed to Baker's cut-rate figures, on executions and promised to do a good job for the reduced price. Invitations were Philadelphia Rector Wrongt Up About the Astor-Force Matrimonial Alliance Declares That Even God Cannot Change Them from "Error of Their Ways" and Thinks Race Suicide Is a Sign of Degeneracy.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

NEWPORT, Aug. 12.—The world both in and out of society may at any time find John Jacob Astor and Miss Madeline Force quietly wedded. Colonel Astor has decided for his bride-elect and himself to get married quickly and as secretly as possible. Col. Astor, his son Vincent, Mrs. William H. Force, and her daughters, Miss Madeline and Miss Katherine, left here today for New York, on board the Astor steam yacht. It is remarked that from New York a quiet and quick wedding could be arranged with less annoyance than almost anywhere else in the country. Whatever their plans, Col. Astor and Miss Force betray no sign of vexation or worry.

First of this year he has received about a dozen letters from the bishop, any one of which he says would constitute good grounds for action.

FIANCEE OF GATES SAYS SHE JILTED NONE.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
PARIS, Aug. 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Miss Florence Hopwood of Minneapolis, whose engagement to marry Charles G. Gates has lately been announced, was informed today a report has been published at her old home that in order to become the wife of Mr. Gates she broke her engagement to wed Harold Sims Carter, the son of a widely-known manufacturer of ink.

"It is all rot," replied Miss Hopwood. "I never threw Harold Carter overboard. I never was engaged to him."

Interrupting at this point, Mr. Gates said, with emphasis:

"The report is an absolute lie. Miss Hopwood made any such statement. During her visit she has not talked with any newspaper reporter until she talked today with you."

MRS. BELMONT'S SON REPORTED ENGAGED.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
NEWPORT, Aug. 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Miss Florence Hopwood of Boston arrived here today and is the guest of Mrs. Oliver H. P. Belmont at the Marble House. Her arrival has revived reports that she is engaged to Mrs. Belmont's son, Harold S. Vanderbilt. Mrs. Vanderbilt was at the train to meet Miss Sears, and drove with her to Marble House in his automobile.

Miss Sears has received a number of invitations to social affairs, and this afternoon with Mr. Vanderbilt was a guest at a luncheon given by Mrs. Clarence W. Dolan.

ASTOR STILL MARRIED IN SIGHT OF GOD.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
ST. LOUIS, Aug. 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Marriage of divorced persons was denounced and the sanctity of the home defended in a sermon today by the Rev. W. A. Masker, Jr., of Christ Church Cathedral, which caused much comment among those who heard it. The impending marriage between John Jacob Astor of New York and Miss Madeline Force, the 19-year-old Philadelphia, was the occasion of the sermon.

"It is to be deplored," said the Rev. Masker, "that a great many who profess and call themselves Christians do not know what either our Lord or the New Testament writers have to say on the subject of marriage and divorce."

After quoting from the famous utterance on the mount, the speaker declared:

"The statement is not that the law of God forbids divorced persons to marry; but that whoever puts away his wife, causes her to commit adultery and whoever marries her, commits adultery. The only sensible inference is that the wife put away, divorced by her husband, is still none the less his wife. The marriage bond is not broken by the divorce."

MISSING GIRL.

BERKELEY, Aug. 12.—Further investigation today into the disappearance of Miss Lois P. Hall from her home here last Wednesday failed to throw any light on the case. Her brother, William Hall, said tonight he was convinced that she took a train to Victoria, B. C., to meet and marry her fiancé there, a real estate

WHAT MAL DE MER IS.

New York Doctor Just Back From Vienna Confirms in His Belief It Is Really Ear Trouble.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Dr. Julius Auerbach, who has spent nine months at the University of Vienna, returned today on the steamship Bremen, confirmed in his belief that sea sickness is not due to a stomach disorder, but to irritation of the semicircular canal of the inner ear.

This is the theory that has been familiar for some time to specialists, and Dr. Auerbach believes that Prof. Dalkink of the University of Vienna has proved it. The doctor says that the function of the semicircular canal is to maintain the equilibrium. When they are irritated, their owners have all the symptoms of sea sickness. The doctors of Vienna found by experimenting that a child in whose ears the canals had been destroyed could not become sick, and that animals without the ear canals were unaffected by sea sickness. Any dieting before a voyage will not prevent sea sickness. Therefore the doctor said no remedy had been found.

RIOTS IN LIVERPOOL.

as a brutal attack by a Birmingham constable on one of the strikers. The strikers have threatened to attack the newspaper offices, which are closely guarded.

PIECE FIGHTING.

Piece fighting continued in the Birmingham quarter until nearly midnight. In Christian street, the rioters erected barricades and started fires to impede the mounted police.

The riot act was read for a second time and more troops were called. A military officer was wounded.

The rioters even attacked ambulance surgeons and the firemen were called out to extinguish incendiary fires.

At 2 o'clock this morning a mob set fire to two houses in Gerrard street, stood about and cheered while they were burning.

Altogether, forty policemen were treated for injuries received during last night's fighting with the strikers.

SERIOUS DISORDERS IN OTHER CITIES.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] LONDON, Aug. 13.—The strike situation in the provinces is growing worse rapidly. In addition to the rioting today at Liverpool there were serious disorders at Glasgow, stopping the street car service.

Thirty thousand workmen met on Glasgow green and the strike leaders demanded drastic measures if the non-strike men continued to take the places of strikers.

Scuffles with the police led to wider disorders in which there were stone throwing on the part of the workmen and baton charges by the police.

Much damage was done to street cars by the strikers before the service was suspended. Cars were pulled off the tracks and their trolley poles removed, windows were smashed and timbers were laid on the rails, or others set on the rails in a body in order to impede the progress of the cars. Many persons were injured.

The transport and railway workers of Manchester and Salford have refused to strike tomorrow evening if the Liverpool and Manchester disputes are not settled.

A union labor demonstration was held in Trafalgar square this afternoon to welcome a party of laborite members of the French Chamber of Deputies. The speakers included Ramsay MacDonald, Ben Tillett and James Keir Hardie, all of whom emphasized the importance of the triumph of the workmen in the London strike and the uniting of international workers who would have a deal to say in international politics.

Mr. Tillett said that before long the railway workers would join the transport federation and then if soldiers were summoned to the scene of a strike they would have to walk in order to get there.

King George in a telegram to Sidney Buxton, president of the Board of Trade, expresses his pleasure that the London strike is ended. His majesty congratulates the Board of Trade for its efforts in putting an end to the trouble and says he trusts that all work will be resumed tomorrow.

GRAVE SITUATION ALL OVER GREAT BRITAIN.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] LONDON, Aug. 13.—Great Britain appears tonight to be confronted by a grave labor movement, compared with which the London strike just ended, would be a small affair.

Together with the street battles and serious riots at Glasgow comes the news of the meetings of railway employees at Liverpool, Glasgow, Manchester, Bristol and Slough and other large cities, at which threats were made of a general strike of all railway men, transport workers, and dockers, unless existing disputes are settled promptly.

Everywhere the workers appear emboldened by the success of the London strike to take energetic steps to secure better terms for their services. In London itself both railway and street car strikes still threaten. The men held a meeting today and discussed the situation, but have not yet taken active measures for going out. As in Glasgow, London's tramway service is run by the municipality.

A serious feature of the situation is the deep resentment the strikers display at the employment of the military and police from other towns to maintain the effects of the strikes upon the supply of food and other necessities. The socialist party is doing its utmost to fan this resentment. At a meeting of 2000 railroad men belonging to the Midland, Great Central and Metropolitan companies it was decided tonight to call a general strike on all the roads and tubes in the London district next Saturday unless grievances were remedied in the meantime. It is rumored that the London tramway men also have sent an ultimatum to the County Council.

FROM BALLOON TO DINING-ROOM.

PARACHUTE JUMPER LANDS ON TABLE IN HOTEL.

Guests of Atlantic City Hotel at New York from the Uninvited Guest and then to him to find that he had received fatal injuries.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] ATLANTIC CITY (N. J.) Aug. 13.—Charles Bennett, 26 years old, of Newark, a parachute jumper, was when he plunged through the skylight over the dining-room of the Marlborough-Blenheim Hotel. His skull is fractured.

Bennett, who ascended from the $1000 dollar pier, shot up to an altitude estimated at 1500 feet. Then he executed a double parachute drop toward the hotel. When he cut loose from the balloon he shot down several hundred feet before the umbrella opened. Half way to earth he about a thousand feet from the hotel. The parachute opened, but he was not seen.

By witness of his body Bennett managed to give the parachute around the Marlborough tower, but a current of air caught him and he was thrown on the glass roof. He fell through the glass and landed on a dining table. Guests scattered and then rushed to his assistance.

Life's Scamy Side.

MOB LYNCHES DYING NEGRO.

Invades Hospital and Drags Him from Cot.

Would Have Expired Before Morning, Surgeons Say.

Accused of Murdering Arresting Detective.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] COATESVILLE (Pa.) Aug. 13.—Terrifying the internes and nurses in the hospital here this evening, a mob of 3000 persons, among them many miners considerably the worse for liquor, dragged John Walker, a dying negro, from his cot, took him to the outskirts of the city, where he was lashed to a post of railroad iron and burned to death.

Walker had been pursued by a posse since daybreak. He was accused of the murder, yesterday, of Edgar Rice, a detective, who had gone to the assistance of two Italians Walker was supposed to be holding up and robbing. When the detective ordered the negro to surrender, the latter shot him, killing him instantly. He disappeared immediately and the search was meanwhile organized. All trains were watched to see that he did not get out of the country, and farmers and officers in all directions were warned by telephone to watch out for the fugitive. Before sunrise posers, heavily armed, were beating up the forests and raiding the negro quarters. The trail of the negro was finally picked up, but was lost several times in the thick underbrush.

BATTLED WITH POSSE.

This afternoon Walker was brought to bay behind a haystack at a farm two miles from his home. He was apparently very weak from hunger and lack of sleep, but was game to the finish. His captors fired on his pursuers with the revolver he had used to slay the detective, but owing to his exhausted condition his shots went wild. When but one cartridge remained, he placed the revolver behind his right ear and sent the final bullet into his head. He was in a dying condition when he was picked up and rushed to the Coatesville hospital.

Surgeons said the negro could not survive the night, but friends of the detective were not satisfied to let the murderer die in comparative peace, and the talk of lynching spread like wildfire.

DIDN'T REALIZE FATE.

It did not require long for the mob to form. Apparently every man was a leader, and the rush upon the hospital was irresistible. It had all been planned and done so quickly that there was no time for the hospital authorities to communicate with the police.

Other patients in the hospital screamed and begged for mercy, not understanding the invasion. Down the street, at a rapid pace, the mob tore along, with Walker, then so near death that he probably did not fully realize his impending fate. When he was lashed to the iron, his head hung limply and he made no resistance whatever. Fagots had been collected on the way and in advance and piled quickly about him. Gasoline from a nearby garage was poured over the negro and his pyre, and a match applied. The flames shot up with a roar that drowned any protest, if the victim made any. It was all over in a few minutes and the mob slinked away.

Lucky Seventh Sons.

[Dundee Advertiser.] In the early days of the reign of the late King Leopold of Belgium a seventh son was born to a Brussels woman, and when the King heard of it and was told that the boy the seventh successive one, and that no girl has come to the family, he asked to see the baby's godfather. Ever since then every seventh son born in Brussels has had the same honor, and the mothers have received gifts in keeping with their stations in life. King Albert, in carrying out the old usage, a short time ago, had some difficulty because the seventh son was twins. He could not stand for both boys, because that would give the family two Alberts. The remedy was found by Queen Elizabeth, who suggested that her little son, the Duke of Brabant, be the godfather of the eighth boy, who consequently received the name of Leopold.

Had Poetic Symptoms.

[Chicago News.] Give me your candid opinion of these lines," said the young man with literary aspirations. "Do they convey any idea of poetry to you at all?"

"Yes, there is something in every line that conveys the idea," answered the friendly critic, after looking them over. "Every line begins with a capital letter."

WITH THE VETO IN HIS POCKET.

Statehood Resolution Doomed by the President.

Will Use Sledge Hammer on Judicial Recall.

His Mind Also Made Up to Kill Wool Bill.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] BEVERLY (Mass.) Aug. 13.—

With his veto message on the Flood resolution, providing for the admission of Arizona and New Mexico into the Union, practically completed President Taft brought his week-end visit here to a close tonight. The President left Beverly tonight for Boston and took the message with him. He took a train at Boston at 8 p.m., for Washington, and is scheduled to reach the capital tomorrow morning. The message may be sent to Congress during the day. Only a desire to revise it slightly is likely to postpone its presentation to Congress until Tuesday.

The President's veto is understood to be based largely upon the provision for the recall of the judiciary in the Arizona Constitution. To the New Mexican Constitution the President is understood to have no particular objection, but the Flood resolution so couples the two Territories, that a veto must affect them both.

It is understood that the message is quite long. It is expected that the President's position in regard to the recall of judges will be presented in plain terms.

The wool revision veto message has not been touched by the President so far, but the outlines of it are in his mind, and about all he will need to do in Washington will be to call in a secretary and dictate. It was said here tonight that the wool veto should reach Congress before the end of the week.

FRESNO VALLEY

20 ACRES

Just Right for One Man

Take 20 acres of this rich, productive, easily-worked, Fresno Valley soil and one man can handle all of it and more, even to the extent of intensive culture. Here the water is cheap from ditches and from pumps; the roads are good; no transportation expense on two railroads; new electric line coming; nice neighbors and a good little town close by. Just 20 minutes ride to Fresno. Plant this twenty to anything you like: alfalfa, deciduous fruits, oranges, vegetables, berries. This land is good for almost everything that grows in California. But the price is only $100 an acre, four years to pay, by monthly installments if you like.

BY GREY OLIVER.

Vernon, 14; Sacramento, 5. Morning game.
Vernon, 6; Sacramento, 5. Afternoon game, thirteen innings.
With the crack of Hogan's bat in the last half of the thirteenth inning yesterday afternoon, Brashear, who was rooting on second base made a dash for the third bag as 5000 fans let out a great roar of joy and excitement. The ball shot along the ground toward Little Nebinger playing off second base and Brashear half stopped running as he rounded third base and looked over his left shoulder at Nebinger.

As he did so the elusive ball slipped under Nebinger's hands and continued on out to right field and Brashear threw himself into the high speed and dashed to the plate, winning by this belated burst of speed one of the most exciting games of ball played here this season.
The fans raised up in their seats, threw their hats in the air and shouted themselves hoarse over the victory, for across on the big score board they could see that the Oaks had trimmed the Beavers out of a game in the northwest and the results of the day put the Tigers twelve points ahead of Portland in the race.
This afternoon win was a lucky one for the Tigers. They had no more right to it than they have to play ball on Spring street. Baum had to rush to Byram's assistance in the seventh inning and as soon as the Senators saw Baum coming, they began to kick the ball around in a scandalous manner and throw it where no other fellow was.

Why in the ninth inning alone they made three bad errors behind him and there were two in the eighth. That is the kind of support that causes the useless rich to Reno and Baum probably wanted to go there himself and get a divorce from some of his fielders when he saw them booting the ball around the lot.

BYRAM STARTS WELL.

Byram started the game in fine style and got through six innings without a run being scored off him. In fact, only two men got as far as third base. Then after making the Tigers look sheepish for six rounds, the seventh came along with a hard drive to left and Stinson followed suit. Hesp banged a double against the left fence, scoring Brashear and Stinson. This was enough for O'Rourke and he yanked Byram out and stuck in Baum. The fans were howling their heads off by this time and the noise became worse when Byram shot a single to left that scored Hesp with the third run. Brown sacrificed, putting Byram on second. He advanced to third on Castleton's infield out and scored on Carlisle's bouncing hit to right field.

This was the tying run and the fans raised the roof off the grand stand with their cheers. It was almost a cinch bet that the Tigers would win. They are regular Portland on extra inning games and in lifting themselves by the boot straps out of holes.
The Senators had to take several looks at Castleton before they realized he was easy and they did not begin on him until the third inning. He gave Byram a punt and then the one was forced at second on a grounder by Shinn to Patterson. A moment later Shinn stole second and on Brown's throw down, kept on to third. He easily scored when Nebinger doubled to left. Neb advanced to third on Van Buren's infield single and scored when Van was forced at second by Denzig.
Then Castleton behaved himself until the seventh inning and after striking out Lerchen, Byram beat out an infield single. Shinn slid to left and then came a really remarkable home run, with the ball headed 300 feet from the plate.

FREAK HOMER.

Nebinger hit a long high fly ball against the left field fence. Kane ran back to the fence and seeing he could not catch the ball, he dashed back toward second base. The ball hit the fence with a loud smack and caromed back toward second base, with Kane in hot pursuit. While this race was on Byram scored and Nebinger was hitting the high places around the paths. When he was between second and third bases Kane overtook the ball but his speed was so great that he overran it and then he had to turn and run back twenty feet before he could pick it up. By the time he had recovered the ball and thrown it Nebinger had scored the most peculiar home run ever seen in this city.

With the score tied at 4 in the seventh inning, Castleton got the first two Senators out very easily in the eighth inning but could not get Byram. He doubled to left. A moment later Thomas rapped the ball to right for a single that scored Heister. This was destined to be the final run for the Senators.
Kane was the first man up for Vernon in the eighth and he hit a grounder to Lerchen who threw the ball slow to first. Dan could not stop it and Kane ran on the to second, to the music of 5000 cheers from the excited fans. Then Patterson grounded to Nebinger, who juggled the ball, doubling due to the terrific noise that rose up from the bleacher fans. Brashear bounced the ball off Baum's hands but Lerchen got it and on a throw to

LOS ANGELES ROOTERS HARDEST TO PLEASE?

Critical Follower of Game Says Cosmopolitan Complexion of Spectators at Washington Park Makes the Grand Stand Tough Proposition for Home Players to Face—Bleachers' Support Is on the Blink.

BY EARL ROGERS.

I MADE a few feeble remarks recently on some fans of various cities, namely: New York, Philadelphia and St. Louis. Herein, I say a few things about the fans of the other great cities, to-wit: Chicago, Cincinnati, Washington and Los Angeles, especially Los Angeles.

The Chicago White Sox have a great throng of admirers. They never have been even close to a pennant; they can't play a game comparable with that of the Cubs, taking the season through. On the other hand, the National leaders always are in the first division, and have won more than their share of bunting. Chance's men expound modern baseball as it never has been shown by any other club.

Chicago people seem to take the Cubs as a matter of course; if the White Sox do a good thing, you hear everybody boasting them. The feel-

I never have seen a Boston crowd. There are more Irish in Boston than Dublin. So there must be some fans there.

Of all the grandstands I ever have seen, for a hard one to please, for a tough one to face, let me call your attention to Los Angeles.

About one-third of the attendance of tonight's game were tourists. The ladies and gentlemen recently from Iowa and Nebraska want you to know that they saw "better ball than this back in Cedar Rapids" or Omaha.

If you look about among the ladies and your eyes lights on a lid that looks like it was "made in Muscatine," you shortly will hear some very country-fied criticism of Mr. Hogan or Mr. Dillon, from under the bucolic hat.

If you scent an odor, reminding you of a burning automobile that has hit a garbage wagon, and look behind the smoking Topeka two-fer, at the Kan-

"UMP" NEARLY KILLED BY MOB.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
ST. LOUIS, Aug. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Only the quick action of the Chief of Police and members of the Granite City ball team prevented a mob of 500 fans from seriously injuring and perhaps killing Robert Anderson of North Venice, who umpired the game between Glen Carbon and Granite City this afternoon.

All during the game, upon the result of which depended temporary possession of second place in the league, the crowd took exception to rulings of Anderson. After one decision 500 men and boys swept out on the field after Anderson, crying: "Kill him."

He was being struck and jostled when Chief of Police White reached his side in time to check the mob temporarily. A special guard of police and players had to protect him until he was put on the car for North Venice.

"Boer" Unholz, the lightweight fighter, yesterday was host, chief cook and bottle washer, at a dinner party at which the guests were Frankie Conley and his wife, Harry Gilmore, Conley's manager, and Mrs. Gilmore, at Westrem's.

The fame of Unholz, sturdy knight of the padded circle, has spread from the kopjes of South Africa to the snow-covered tundras of Siberia and back again, but few devotees of the biff-biff pastime know that as a student of hashology, he has Herr Reichl and Mister Demonicos washing the cup in one of Child's fodder shops as he formerly mauled the spider in a held in a local restaurant yesterday, at which the little pugilist showed his professional ground, they ever saw made by Moore.

If you gaze in the next box, you will see a "knocker" who has drummer written all over him. He would like to have you think he is "our Mr. Pearlmutter," who travels for Knauth, Kuhn & Kuminski, the prominent and well-known wholesalers of silks and satins, and particularly does he desire to have you know he comes from New York. He doesn't. He hails from Oshkosh, and peddles pickles and pumpernickel. So, he is vociferously showing his non-residence by ballyhacking Burrell.

The diamond probably is the first professional ground they ever saw. They don't know the difference between a double-steal and a fireless cooker. Mention a "foul-tip" and they think you mean an albatross, or a rooster's feather on a hat. When the catcher jumps for a wild-pitch, they call it a jump-ball. six by eight restaurant in Capetown, South Africa.

Yesterday he performed all of the difficult tasks of the kitchen admirably. The line of "chow" dishes served by the conqueror of Nelson would have made Mr. Gourmand turn a deep sea green.

Ruddy lifted the barrier and shoved out a bevy of soup plates overflowing with Conje soupals. Um! Um! and another um!

It was delicious. The ox-tail soup can on the third shelf nearly fell off when it saw Frankie Conley, the Kenosha featherweight, tuck away two heaping platefuls.

MANY VARIETIES.

After the soup Ruddy poked forth a string of munchable edibles ranging from Transvaal gadzook salad to Capetown jummies, whatever they are. Conley and Gilmore would still be leaning over the counter knocking down Ruddy's fodder if the supply had not run out early in the game.

"It was the best meal I ever had," chirped Conley after the big show. "If Facky McFarland wants to take on weight after he weighs in the afternoon he fights Wolgast I'd advise him to lean up against one of the Boer's repasts. I'll wager he'd take on forty pounds, more or less."

"It was simply delicious," said Mrs. Conley. "Mr. Unholz is a mighty fine cook."

"He certainly is," chimed Mrs. Gilmore. "I wish I could cook as well."

"I wish you could too, dear," laughingly remarked Gilmore.

"Oh, it wasn't much," said Ruddy. "I am out of practice but someday when I quit the ring I'm going to open a hash house in Los Angeles or Denver."

"I like to fuss over a grate and I think I think there's money in it if you go at it right."

The Boer is acting as sparring partner for Conley, who is matched to box Patsy Kline at Vernon, August 22.

MUCH PERTURBED

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PORTLAND, Aug. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The slump of the Beavers and their drop to second place in the standing in favor of Vernon, is giving serious concern to Walter McCredie, manager of the team, and to Judge McCredie, its chief owner.

"We are going badly," said Walter after Oakland had taken its fourth game out of the series of six today, and we have got to do better. We have the best team in the league and we must regain our place.

"I am going to see to it that we play better ball than we have played these four weeks past. If necessary, we are going to have a shake-up to accomplish this."

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Tom Tennant pulled a rich one on "Babe" Driscoll this afternoon that the bushier will have to charge up to experience.

Playing centerfield for the Angels in the absence of Daley, Driscoll distinguished himself with a two-bagger, a single, a short, and a bunt, and a right, and that last single was the ball where he had all his trouble. The ball soared in the air and looked good for a home run. Driscoll thought so, himself, and never even noticed as he against the wire netting and dropped back into the inclosure.

"Good boy, kid," shouted Tennant, in an unconcerned manner, "you've made a nice home run."

Driscoll, willing to believe, set himself for a leisurely trot around the cushions and down to the plate to receive the plaudits of the crowd for a tied score. But it was not to be. Holland, handling the ball, whipped it to Weaver, and when Driscoll awoke he was touched out at second base.

Next time, he says he isn't going to trust any ball player, no matter what

LONG FLIGHTS
ARE PLANNED.Aero Club Expects to Hold Cross-Country Races.New Stunts in Aviation to Have First Trial Here.Circuit of Southern Cities Is to Be Made.

According to plans announced last night by George Harrison, president of the Aero Club of Southern California, in October Southern California is to have the first chance to witness a real long distance race of aeroplanes.

This, asserts Harrison, will be the first time the European idea of air racing will have been tried out in America, and the fact which this section has at present in things aeronautical, will be vastly increased.

While the details are still lacking, the main idea has been worked out by Harrison and Earle Remington, the wealthy son of a Philadelphia safe manufacturer, who has come to the fore through his interest in aviation. The circuit races will be held during the first or second week of October and will last five days. The races will all be for long distances, the aviators flying from town to town over a specified course, exactly as is the custom with automobile races.

The start will be in or near Los Angeles, probably at the Dominguez aviation field, and the finish will be at the same spot. In the plan, the races are following the general scheme adopted by the governors of the round-England and all the larger and more important aerial contests on the Continent.

Remington will leave for the East tomorrow to begin the campaign for holding the meet during the winter flying season in Southern California. Harrison says: "This trip is part of our plans, arranged some time ago, and backed by many of the most interested and prominent men in aviation circles of this district. We hope to be able to set next year's flying standards for the whole world."

"We believe that the advantages from holding the first American aviation meet at the Dominguez field will be duplicated by anticipating the large number of cross-country flights already arranged for in other parts of the country, and by giving California the credit and prestige for starting them. With this end in view we have worked out practically all the initial details for an aerial race of at least 50 miles with the start and the finish near Los Angeles."

The plans for the race will probably be utilized on one of two Southern California circuits which have been selected by Van M. Griffith, secretary of the Aero Club. The start and finish may be either at the Dominguez field or at some point in Pasadena, yet to be selected. Some fifty points where the contestants will be allowed to stop the controls of the aero race, will be selected and marked out for the racers. We have adopted the regulations for the race along the lines suggested by the experience of the European races. Each aviator will be furnished with a map, rolled in a long strip, so he may be able to follow the course without danger of going wrong. Aids map will be specially prepared for him. It is expected that at least twenty aviators will be entered for the race."

RAY DUER BEATEN IN MOTOR-PACED RACE.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
NEWARK (N. J.) Aug. 11.—Elmer Collins of Lynn, Mass., carried off honors in a ten-mile motor-paced bicycle race on the Velodrome track here today.

George Wiley of Syracuse was second, and Ray Duer of Los Angeles, third. The time was 14:04.45.

The one-mile handicap professional race was won by Alfred Goulet, the Frenchman, from scratch in 1:54.5. Eddie Root of Boston, fifteen yards, was second; David MacKay of Newark, seventy yards, third; Walter Kemar, San Jose, Cal., twenty-five yards, fourth, and Floyd Krebs of Newark, forty yards, fifth.

Joe Fogler of Brooklyn won the "miss and out" professional race. Eddie Root of Newark was second; David MacKay of New York, third. The distance was two miles, three laps, and the time, 6:52.3.5. Eddy Billington of New York won the two-mile professional race in 1:43.2.5. Joe Fogler, by taking two out of three heats won his match race with Albert Krebs of Salt Lake. The best time was 1:10.3.5, in the first heat won by Fogler.

DEER SIGN ON OLD
"BALDY" PLENTIFUL.

Deer hunters have planned to pay particular attention to the slopes of "Old Baldy" again this year, and miners, who operate on the north slope, report deer "sign" very plentiful and a good prospect for sport. A few years ago, the range was turned off by disastrous forest fires, but there is considerable new growth, and feeding conditions are much better again. The vicinity of Baldy used to be considered one of the best deer grounds in this part of the country, and was much used by Godfrey Fritz and other veteran hunters.

WIL TRY SESPE FOR FISH AND DEER.

Dr. H. C. Royer and Ben Zuckerman have planned to put in their vacation in the Sespe this year, and will be on the scene of operations Tuesday morning before daybreak, having gone in by way of Wheeler's Springs, burrowing on up to Coldspring and as much farther as the spirit moves them.

Royer says he is a fisherman now and will be satisfied with trout; but he younger man is bent on bagging big game. Trout are rather small in the Sespe this year, but plenty of them; and rattlers—although too common and frisky for comfort. It takes a brave man to tackle the Sespe during summer if reports of returning campers can be credited, as he skins they bring with them would seem to warrant.

VERNON BEATS SENATORS.

the plate. Kane was caught off third base. Hap Hogan swearing like a soldier at Kane's stupidity and McDonnell's poor coaching.

As Kane would have it, no runs resulted from those two errors or what followed, but in the ninth inning something did happen to Baum's fielders.

BURRELL TIES SCORE.
Burrell opened the ninth with an easy grounder to Danzig who fumbled the ball. Hogan, batting for Brown, made an out that advanced Burrell, who got to third on the out of Rosa, batting for Castleton. Carlisle rapped a grounder to Shinn who juggled the ball. Burrell scoring the tying run amid another great outburst of cheers.

Carlisle kept on running to second and beat Shinn's throw to Neburger and this throw was muffed and Carlisle dashed right on to third base, running wild around the path.

After this spasm the game settled down to a real exhibition of pitching between Baum and Carson, who had taken Castleton's place at the first of the tenth. Anyone who reached first base thought himself lucky for after the ninth only three men got to first ending when the Tigers scored the until the game came to a sudden winning run in the thirteenth.

Brashear started this with a hit to left and was sacrificed to second by Stinson. Then Hopp singled a grounder to Neburger, which that bird allowed to get between his feet and Brashear scored.

Strange to say, there were very few fancy fielding stunts in the game, as long as it was. The most spectacular one of the day happened in the first of the thirteenth and by making a wonderful running catch, Stinson probably saved the game for the Tigers.

After Van Buren had popped to Brashear, Danzig hit to center and then Mahoney rapped the ball on a long fly toward the Chutes case. As soon as the ball left the bat, Stinson started at top speed for the right center fence to head it off and after a hard run he got close enough to stick his right hand out in front of him and over his head and spear the ball. Danzig had dashed toward second base on the at bat but by a mighty throw to first, Stinson doubled him out before he could get back to the bag.

Aside from the ordinary excitement of the play, there was so much excitement in the bleachers in the eighth inning, when the Senators were making their errors that one of the fans in the right field bleachers and it required five minutes of hard fanning with hats and seat cushions before a dozen fans could bring him back to life.

MORNING FRICAS.

The morning game at the Vernon grounds was a spasm of swats. There were no less than five home runs, two triples and four doubles and there were so many runs that the big crowd of fans became cross-eyed looking at the score board. The Tigers got five runs in the fourth inning and seven in the fifth, and were so nearly all in from making runs that their tongues hung out of their mouths.

Arelanes pitched for Sacramento, or tried to, and after getting through three innings in fair shape, he decided to try his fence ball on the Tigers. He did, and they made him look like a baby by eating it alive.

In the fifth, with two out, Hitt bounced a home run over the right fence, Carlisle doubled to left, Kane drew a pass, Patterson singled to center, Brashear was walked and Stinson slammed a homer over the left fence, all kinds of runs pouring in during those two innings. Hitt's triple to right and Stinson's single to left scored the final run for Vernon.

The Senators had nearly as much fun with Hitt in the fifth and sixth innings. They clouted him for their five runs and five hits. Kane's double, Lerchen's pass, Shinn's triple to right and Kane's miff of Van Buren's fly to left scored three easy runs in the fifth and in the sixth Mahoney's homer over the left fence and doubles by Kern and Lerchen made two runs. Stanfield replaced Hitt in the seventh and for the remaining three innings of the game, but one single was made off him.

This kind of a game makes the judicious weep, for pitchers are worth about fifteen cents a throw when the men begin such slugfests. Every curve and spitter looks like a straight ball in the groove.

Aside from the pounding in this struggle, and that is all it was, Kane's hit behind the board for a homer but it bounced directly into the hands of Carlisle standing thirty feet away and Kern was held on second.

Owing to the prolific number of runs the fans were glad when the end came.

WILL HUNT HIS
ABOVE SHERMAN.

Max Friese, who bagged one of the earliest bucks of the season last year, plans to repeat his trip again this summer, and will go to Sherman, then working up Coldwater Canyon and scouring the hills back of the Soldiers Home. Going up at noon, he came down at 4 o'clock with a deer last year. Such good luck hardly can be expected another time. It goes to show that many a good thing near home is overlooked by the hunters who are bitten with the "go-as-far-as-you-can" bug.

WILL TRY LUCK
UP ARROYO SECO.

If there are any deer up around the head of the Arroyo Seco in the vicinity of Strain's Camp, they are apt to find themselves "wrongly" placed. "Dick" Culver and Arthur B. Dodge have had designs on this region for some time, and Culver recently acquired possession of a 30-30 Winchester, which is expected to earn its upkeep during the time they are in the area. An attempt will be made to catch some trout, incidentally.

CONLEY AND KLINE
BEGIN LIGHT TRAINING.

CROWDS of fight fans went out to the training camps of Frank Conley and Patsy Kline yesterday, to see the boys work in preparation for their twenty-round contest at Vernon Arena on the afternoon of August 24.

At the St. Ignatius Club "gym" Conley did a great amount of work for the first day at his exercising, boxing rounds in all, using "Boer" Sullivan for six rounds, and Frankie Sullivan for the remainder of the session. Conley showed all of his old-time aggressiveness, and never for a moment tried to balk away from his opponent.

In addition to his mitt work he manipulated the pulleys, punched the bags, and did fifteen minutes of shadow boxing. He was several pounds above the featherweight limit, but Harry Gilmore will take his time in reducing the Kenosha boy, so as to have him just as strong as possible when he enters the ring to meet Kline. Conley begins his public boxing, Wednesday.

Speed Contest.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
CHICAGO, Aug. 11.—The record for total time spent in flying is one aviation mark that is bound to be broken during the international aviation meet here. The inspiration is the $2 paid each flyer for each minute his machine is in the air.

When the gun boomed to open the second day of the meet today, the success of this plan was proven. Except for a half dozen aviators who planned to enter events for particular prizes, there was a general exodus from the hangars and in less than half an hour there were a score of cars floating over the field and out above the city, all planning to stay up until their gasoline was exhausted.

The result was that during all the scheduled events there were at least a dozen cars hanging over the field, several remaining up during the greater part of the afternoon.

Much fast time was made. The trip around the course of one mile and a third around seven pylons, was made repeatedly in a minute. The average time in the twenty-mile races was less than twenty-five minutes. Oscar A. Brindly is believed to have won the day's record for both altitude and duration. He remained at an altitude of 5500 feet nearly three hours. Brindly remained in the air until after a fire had been built to show him the location of the park.

Lincoln Beachy, never driving more than fifty feet above the ground, won the twenty-mile speed contest for biplanes making the distance in 23m. 11.15s., defeating Earl Ovington, and James Ward who finished in the order named. Beachy also made the fastest time of the six entries in the six-mile trial heats, his record being 3m. 42.06s. Ovington's time in the YOUNG SCHOLARSHIP CONTESTANTS WANT TO QUALIFY AS BUSINESS MEN AND WOMEN Others Have Histrionic Aspirations and Their Leaning Is Towards the Operatic and Dramatic Stage.

Scholarship Department Will Close Very Soon And Contestants Are Urged To Make Their Finishing Work A Credit To Themselves—Something of the New Pacific Coast School of Railroad and the Egan Dramatic School.

YESTERDAY'S bulletin in The Times Greater Contest told its own story. This morning we wish to speak especially to the Scholarship contestants and call their attention again to the fact that in addition to the scholarships which they are working for, cash awards will be given with the first seven scholarships selected. Four time is comparatively short. As a matter of fact you have only about a month or less in which to win out. For your information again this morning we are printing a couple of pictures; one showing a make-up class in the process of study and instruction in the Egan Dramatic School. Another showing a typewriting-room in the Pacific Coast School of Railroad.

SCHOOL OF RAILROAD.
The Pacific Coast School of Railroad is an unique institution and it covers a field all its own. We desire to tell you something of it in the various examinations.

Special short course—This course is open to persons who have some knowledge of commercial subjects and wish to perfect themselves along certain lines.

Terms and conditions made to meet the requirements of each individual.

Students coming to us with a good education can be graduated as competent stenographers or book-keepers in from two to three months.

VETERANS SOAR TO CLOUDLAND.
Energetic Old Players of Musical Melodies Go Up in Luna Park's Captive Balloon.
From the skies and 2200 feet above Luna Park, the Veteran Pipe and Drum Corps, G.A.R., yesterday thrilled and beat a farewell to Los Angeles, prior to their long excursion into the East to exploit Los Angeles' advantages for the next G.A.R. convention. This unusual exploration of cloudland was made in the captive balloon, which is one of the features of Luna Park's attractions and five members of the corps with their instruments made the trip in succession, until all had gone aloft to spread their martial music in the air.

The extraordinary sight of a band drum swinging over the side of the balloon's car, the stirring strains of the fife and the rattle of drums at such an altitude, attracted the attention of all within a radius of half a mile.

There was another large crowd on the grounds of Luna Park yesterday and at the time of the ascensions fully 17,000 persons were assembled, all joining in the applause as each carful of the veterans soared or descended to the solid earth. Among them were many members of local G.A.R. posts.

The "Fairy Gorge," Luna Park's latest addition to its attractions, and a contrivance equipped with "hugan wash tube" of gargantuan proportions, was thrown open to the public.

The return of Miss Nardi, the French soprano, who yesterday began her second engagement at Luna Park, was hailed with delight by many music-lovers and her programme of classic and popular selections was rewarded with applause.

Frank Gregory's band gave rendition of "The Storm," from "Rigoletto," presenting electrical and pyrotechnic features.

Beginning this afternoon the Four Nelson Comiques, acrobatic comedians will play a brief engagement at Luna Park. This troupe of funny fellows have a bagful of new stunts.

Eight Square Miles Scared on San Jacinto Range.

Fighters Gain Control After Hours of Toil.

After laying in waste about eight square miles of timber and brush land, threatening the entire Cleveland preserve, and routing two squads of fighters, a forest fire that had its start ten miles southeast of Banning, yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock was turned by the wind and said to be under control at midnight last night.

Reports received here last night set forth that the blaze had its origin in a small brush fire set by a rancher to burn the odoriferous carcass of a skunk. For a time it swept everything before it. Sixty fresh men were reported on the scene last night. Among them were Deputy Warden Baleschew, Forest Ranger Decker, Indian Detective Pablo and a number of Indians from the government reservation. The fire fighters say that only a lucky shift of the wind averted one of the most disastrous forest blazes in the history of this section of the State.

The mountain resort, Idyllwild, located on the west side of San Jacinto, was directly in its path for a time, and warning was given those it sheltered to be ready to leave at a moment's notice.

The greatest damage was done on the southern slope of the San Jacinto range. When the flames got beyond control, Supervisor H. A. Marshall of the Cleveland reserve was notified at his home in San Diego. He gathered fourteen men and provisions for two days and left for the scene. With his party he will remain until the blaze is completely extinguished.

In answer to the general alarm a squad of fire fighters from Banning had already been hastily dispatched to the scene. By the time the Supervisor arrived a stiff west wind had sprung up. The fire, headed for the Southern Pacific and government reserves and fanned by the wind, leaped ahead with a swiftness beyond the ability of the men to check.

The fire fighters gamely gave battle, however, and stuck to their task until, one by one, they were exhausted. Meanwhile one of them sent word to headquarters at Banning of the serious import of the fire. Thirty-five additional men were loaded into autos and a record run made.

Unloading such apparatus as they had been able to throw into their machines the new squad began its attack. It was futile from the outset. Roaring and crackling, the sea of flame ran up the mountain sides at a pace that left behind the fastest sprinter in the squad.

The slopes are covered with a thick growth of fine pine that have never been touched by the ax. The ground is covered by a thick carpet of dead timber and much of this, with the pine trees, caught and burned like oil.

Every fire fighting trick known to the men was resorted to, but the flames continued to eat their way up the slopes almost uninterrupted.

As they reached precipitous heights man after man dropped behind utterly worn out, as had those in the first squad. Not until the flames had nearly topped the crest did the fighters succeed in flanking and checking its progress.

Hundreds of autoists and others in rigs and on horseback flocked to the scene, as did scores of hunters, attracted by the wild game flushed by the blaze.

VICTORIA (B. C.) News brought by the Empress of Japan is that the Okaka Steamship has in view the establishment of a steamship line to the Panama Canal, where it is completed. News was also brought that the Fuyo Kaikan Kaisha has ordered the construction of a 100-ton steamer at Nagasaki for the trans-Pacific trade.

VICTORIA (B. C.) Andre Jagerschmidt, a representative of the Daily Expositor of Paris, who started from France twenty-seven days ago, made a trip across the world in forty-two days, arrived from Japan on the Empress of Japan, which made port one day ahead of his boat. He was on his way to New York, where he will sail for Europe on the Olympia. He says he will complete his tour in thirty-nine days from the time of leaving Paris, thereby breaking all previous records.

VICTORIA (B. C.) More than five hundred lives were lost and great damage as a result of a typhoon which struck the island of Japan, July 27, according to advices brought by the Empress of Japan. At Tokyo a tidal wave swept away many houses, and a large tea house, with thirty-three people, QUADALAJARA (Mex.) William Trimbath, a mining man from the United States, working in the Guanajuato district, is in jail here, charged with killing a fourteen-year-old Mexican boy. It is reported that Trimbath has been made.

VICTORIA (B. C.) Passengers of the wrecked Canadian Pacific liner Empress of China, which went ashore on Horn Reef, Japan, 120 feet from shore, July 27, have arrived on the steamer Empress of Japan today with details of the wreck.

TACOMA The Federal grand jury which was hastily called by Judge Hanford Thursday night, returned Saturday morning. Whether one or more persons are named in the indictment is official refusal to disclose.

Acquiring Legal Wagon. [The Argonaut:] A Chicago lawyer tells of a newly-elected judge in Minnesota, who was much elated by his honors, but not quite sure that he could sustain them gracefully. So for some time previous to his assumption of the office he hung about the courts to get a tip now and then as to legal procedure.

When, sitting in judgment on his first case, the testimony was all in and the arguments made, his honor cleared his throat and delivered himself of the following:

"The Court takes this case under advisement until Thursday morning, when it will render a verdict in favor of the defendant."

NEWS IN BRIEF.

About Lemon Amendment.
 Acting President Osborne of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday received a dispatch from Congressman Stephens, saying: "Do not believe Senate will concur in lemon amendment."

New Hampshire Picnic.
 The annual picnic of the New Hampshire Society of Los Angeles will be held at Echo Park next Saturday and for that reason the August meeting of the organization will not be held. A basket luncheon is to be held at noon and the picnic day will be spent in reunion and a general good time.

Back From France.
 Mr. and Mrs. Georges Fuenot of the Villa de Paris arrived in Los Angeles yesterday afternoon from a visit of four months with relatives and friends in France. While in the Old World they spent most of their time in Paris and Mrs. Fuenot said that the trip was a most pleasant one both to herself and Mr. Fuenot, although they met many visitors from Southern California, among them being Attorney G. E. Newlin of Los Angeles.

Sunday Liquor Pinches.
 Officers Davidson and Benson yesterday arrested Dan Connelly, who conducts a restaurant at No. 533 San Fernando street, and H. Kollwold, Jr., found in charge of the restaurant, for violation of the liquor ordinance. Seventy-two bottles of beer and whiskey were found at the restaurant and several bottles of beer at the drug store. Connelly was released under $500 bond.

Loose Finger.
 While operating a wood-carving machine at the Robert Brothers' mattress factory, Fourteenth street and Long Beach avenue, M. W. Clark, aged 35, a shipping clerk, living at No. 711 East Washington street, received painful injuries to his right hand, which was caught in the machine. He was taken to a hospital, where the index finger was amputated. Although the three other fingers were lacerated, Drs. Goodrich and Jones, who dressed the injury, believe they will be saved. Clark is married and has two children.

Fruit for Delegates.
 Fruit furnished by the Chamber of Commerce and a lot of literature representing the attractions of Southern California will be taken by the local delegation to the national encampment of the G. A. R. in Rochester, for distribution among the delegates in the campaign to bring the next encampment here. The two special cars carrying the delegation will leave the Arcade Depot at 2:30 p.m. tomorrow. The arrival in Rochester will be next Sunday afternoon. The combined ages of the fifteen members of the Veterans' Pipe and Drum Corps, which will go with the delegation, total 1034 years.

TO MID-PACIFIC ASHES WILL GO.
 LIKE HUSBAND'S THEY WILL BE TAKEN FAR TO SEA.

Singular coincidence Connected With the Death of Mrs. Hagan, Widow of Pioneer Physician of Los Angeles—Case Recalls "The Times" Excursion to the Orient.

Singular coincidence and the views of a physician who lived in advance of his day play a part in a decision which will result in the ashes of Mrs. Rose Hagan, widow of Dr. Martin Hagan, who came to Los Angeles in 1884 to visit, but saw the vast reality possibilities and remained to win property, that the disposition of human bodies by fire and the casting of the ashes to the sea is the only way.

At his death in 1901 his son, Dr. Ralph Hagan, former police surgeon and police commissioner under Mayor McAlister, at once had the body cremated.

The ashes were kept in a jar at the son's home until, several years later, The Times conducted an excursion to the Orient. Dr. Ralph Hagan's wife and her mother embarked, and midway between this country and Japan the ship dropped anchor at the island of Hawaii. There came a tragic sequel, Mrs. Hagan's mother, Mrs. Minnie Burke, on reaching Yokohama, died of apoplexy, which had caused her father-in-law's death. At the crematorium, at the request of her husband, she was cremated in the same manner as her husband.

It was learned yesterday that apoplexy, superinduced by an attack of pneumonia, also produced the death of Mrs. Rose Hagan. Her remains will be cremated at Rosedale. The ashes will then be taken in charge by her son, Dr. Ralph Hagan. He said that in the near future they probably will be intrusted to a friend going either to Japan or the Philippines to drop to their last resting place in the Pacific. Services will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at Pierce Bros., No. 810 Flower street, for Mrs. Hagan. Her death last Saturday night ended a career notable for charitable deeds. Her women. She was one of the founders and for years secretary of the Protestant Orphans' Home.

Mrs. Rose Hagan, whose death ended a notable charitable career and whose ashes are to be cast into the Pacific, as were those of her husband, Dr. Martin Hagan.

With her husband she played a prominent part in the social and material development of the southwestern section of the city. Dr. Hagan, Sr.'s advice to realty investors when this section of the city was open country was, "Buy west." He acted on his own advice and added substantially to his fortune. He lived to see much of the district covered with residences.

Dr. Hagan, the elder, and his family located at No. 437 South Spring street. It was a sparsely settled district then. Later they removed to No. 839 South Spring street. He bought this place for $17,500. It is now estimated as worth $150,000. Dr. Hagan, the younger, and his brother, H. Wood Hagan, an official of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company, acting for their mother, recently leased it for ninety-nine years at an average annual rental of $10,000. This is the only property left by Mrs. Hagan.

It was turned over to her sons under the new lease, so that proceedings for the probate of her will are deemed unnecessary.

"Our coming to Los Angeles," said Dr. Ralph Hagan yesterday, "was almost an accident. Father was a railroad surgeon in St. Paul and worked himself into a nervous breakdown. We went to Honolulu for his health. He got well rapidly, and became so deeply attached to the country that he spent three years there."

"It was under the old monarchy, he saved the life of Princess Ruth by his surgical skill and King Kalakaua made him royal physician, and during his stay showed him with all kinds of presents. When he desired father to visit the palace the king always sent his golden coach for him to make the trip."

"But father got to longing for St. Paul again and we started back. He had heard of Los Angeles as a city with a remarkable future and came here out of curiosity, only to stay and become one of its most enthusiastic residents."

Dr. Hagan, Sr., and his wife long ago became known as pioneer settlers. He was at different times city health officer and county physician. He was also a surgeon during the Civil War. Mrs. Hagan was an active member of Stanton Post, W.R.C., despite her 73 years.
